Cheryle announced that we still need volunteers for our events. Sign-up sheets are in the mailroom, or give your name to Cheryle.

Cheryle reported that the Pasta Night – Pulse Benefit was a great success

A lot of hard work from volunteers – great food – great music from David L.

Cheryle called Mary & Jerry Hockstad & Steve Giovinelli up to the front to recognize and express the community's appreciation for all their hard work on the Pulse.

Betty Marlow presented Mary, Jerry and Steve a check for $1,000.00 towards the Pulse from SCOPP. They were very appreciative and emphasized how the Pulse is a community publication and expressed their thanks to the contributors each month.

Cheryle reported on the success of the SCOPP Halloween Party. There were great costumes, prizes, food, comradery, dancing and music by the Mixers.

The Sunrise Breakfasts are going well.

SCOPP welcomes volunteers – we still need help with clearing out our storage unit.

SCOPP provided lunch for the Craft Fair on November 10 – Cheryle thanked those who supported it. Lyn Carpenter plans on hosting another Craft Fair, but no date has been set as yet.

The November potluck was cancelled – due to its proximity to Thanksgiving, but there will be a potluck on Christmas Day in the clubhouse.

Cheryle talked about the Thanksgiving Dinner on November 17. There will be formal settings with 2 buffet tables. As of this date, 220 tickets have been sold, but tickets can still be purchased.

New Business:

Steve Giovinelli reminded those in attendance that the Park Place website is up and running.

Cheryle addressed the SCOPP Bylaws being taken from the library and written on.

Karen Whaley reported on changes to the Bylaws and how she and the committee have worked on them for six months and there have been five major changes in the process. Karen read the basic information about Bylaws and the reasons for them. One thing she emphasized was that Bylaws provide stability, continuity and structure to an organization. The SCOPP Bylaws will be posted on the web site.

Cheryle asked Joan & Charlie Hlavin if they would be putting up the resident Christmas tree this year? Joan reported that she would look for a committee to help this year and also reminded residents to bring in an ornament for the tree.

SCOPP will be posting pictures in the outside poster area of the “Couple of the Month” and singles will be included also.
