

SCOPP Community Meeting

January 15, 2020

The meeting was called to order at 1:10 PM

Pledge of Allegiance

Roll call: Present: Cheryle Johnson, Barbara Lawson, Jackie Hojnacki, Lois Konopacky

Absent: Sharon Talty, Leona Plante

The secretary's report for December 2019 was read by Lois Konopacky. Karen Whaley made a motion to accept the secretary's report, seconded by Mary Meehan.

Cheryle thanked the volunteers and the event chairs for all their help with SCOPP events.

Cheryle announced the Nominating Committee for the SCOPP 2020 Election. The members are: Karen Whaley, Mary Meehan & Betty Marlow.

There was a discussion of the Comedy Night scheduled for Jan. 25. These entertainers have performed in New York, Las Vegas, cruises, etc. An event was scheduled the week before the Comedy Night, which Cheryle said in the past was never done. Tickets are still available for $20. Contact Cheryle Johnson for tickets.

There was a discussion concerning Channel 95 and why SCOPP's events are not advertised. Lyn Carpenter said that it is between Comcast and the Sun Office and that no one is taking ownership.

Cheryle talked about the acoustics, lack of storage space and things that have not been replaced in the Clubhouse since the renovation.

Karen & Jim Whaley spoke about the Golf Cart Rally taking place on February 8 – Start time: 10:00AM – Lunch 12:00. There will be two people in each cart – a navigator and a driver. Harry B. Golf Carts, a local vendor will offer incentives for door prizes. The tickets are $5.00 and will be sold in the Clubhouse January 16 and January 18 from 10:00 – 11:30. Ticket sales will be closed January 31.

The Boat Parade hosted by Sharon Provenzano and Lillian Massaro was such a huge success, that Cheryle apologized for not having any idea so many residents would show up for SCOPP's refreshments after the parade. A suggestion was made to possibly have a sign up sheet for next year.

January birthdays were celebrated with song and refreshments. Happy Birthday to Barbara Groh and Karen Whaley!

The Treasurer's report for December 31, 2019 was given by Barbara Lawson. The ending balance for the month was $4,983.01. Terry Masino made a motion to accept the Treasurer's report – seconded by Jackie Hojnacki

Sharon Provenzano asked if anyone had asked the office for a dishwasher in the kitchen – a discussion ensued.

Betty Marlow made a motion to adjourn the meeting, seconded by Sharon Provenzano. The meeting was adjourned at 1:55 PM.

Respectfully submitted by Lois Konopacky, Secretary
