Treasure Coast

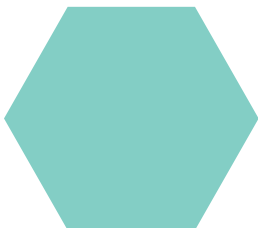

Our area is well-known for the rare antiquities that have washed upon its shores. The shipwreck from the 1715 Spanish Plate Fleet left many treasures along Sebastian's coast.

Treasure hunters continue to search our waters for gold, jewelry, and other artifacts lost in history.

See unique finds first-hand at Mel Fisher's Treasure Museum & Gift Shop and McLarty's Treasure Museum.

White Pelican

Trailblazing Women

Did you know? Fellsmere is the first place in Florida where women were allowed to vote.

In a municipal election on June 19, 1915, resident Zena M. Dreier became the first woman to legally cast a ballot in the American south, five years before the 19th Amendment established women's suffrage nationally.

Unique Heritage

Wabasso Beach

Our Nation's First

We are the birthplace of our nation's first federally designated wildlife refuge, Pelican Island.

Established in 1903 by President Theodore Roosevelt, this little island nestled in the Indian River Lagoon is celebrated as a habitat of splendor for pelicans and many other bird species.

It is a must see for history and wildlife lovers alike!

Mechling

Always A Catch

Sebastian began as a small fishing village dating back to the 1880's. Commercial fishing became a stronghold for the area by the end of the century.

Sebastian's Working Waterfront, along Indian River Drive in Sebastian, showcases the rich culture and history of the fishing industry.

Nature - Lovers

Birthplace of the national wildlife refuge system and home to acres of lush conservation land, miles of sandy shorelines, and unspoiled waterways.

GETAWAY
with the Captain

As much a place as it is a state of mind, Capt Hiram's Resort is the essence of Florida, enhanced with a Bahamian beat.

Drop anchor on the shores of Sebastian's Indian River or park your car and surrender to "island time" the Capt Hiram's way.

Open to the public, we just might be the best-kept secret on the Treasure Coast!
